Organizational Studies (ORGS)

Courses

ORGS 3000. Topics in Organizational Studies. 3 Credit Hours.
A special topics course, used for presenting material and approaches that are either experimental in nature or not yet a regular part of the curriculum.
Course content varies and is assigned to the appropriate advanced requirement in the major.
Repeatability: This course may be repeated for additional credit.

ORGS 3082. Independent Study. 1 to 4 Credit Hour.
Students devise a program for independent study with an academic advisor and an instructor. Designed for those students whose research interests are not met in any established course. NOTE: Special authorization required for all students. Interested students must first consult with the course instructor.
Repeatability: This course may be repeated for additional credit.

ORGS 4000. Topics in Organizational Studies. 3 Credit Hours.
A special topics course, used for presenting material and approaches that are either experimental in nature or not yet a regular part of the curriculum.
Course content varies and is assigned to the appropriate advanced requirement in the major.
Repeatability: This course may be repeated for additional credit.

ORGS 4082. Senior Independent Study. 3 Credit Hours.
Senior essay on a theme or topic related to student's program of study in the Organizational Studies major. NOTE: Special authorization required for all students. Interested students must first consult with the course instructor.
Repeatability: This course may be repeated for additional credit.

ORGS 4096. Senior Seminar in Organizational Studies. 4 Credit Hours.
Students read texts chosen because they are reflective about organizations. Students undertake a research project and write a long report or paper that integrates this research with their academic work in the major. The research data will be either one aspect of their current work experience or a scholarly exploration of a single topic. NOTE: This course serves as the Capstone reading and research course for the Organizational Studies major.
Course Attributes: WI
Repeatability: This course may not be repeated for additional credits.