Academic Programs

For a complete list of academic programs offered at Temple University, refer to the Academic Programs Chart (http://bulletin.temple.edu/archives/2014-2015/academic-programs).

Specific information on undergraduate academic programs is located within the individual schools, colleges and divisions (http://bulletin.temple.edu/archives/2014-2015/undergraduate/schools-colleges). Additional information is located in the following sections:

Attention New Freshmen and Transfer Students

All new undergraduate students are required to complete the university's General Education (GenEd) curriculum.

New freshmen starting in the 2014-2015 academic year are required to complete the GenEd curriculum. Students who have fewer than 15 transferrable credits are considered freshmen. Additionally, students whose transfer credits were earned while in high school, regardless of the number of transfer credits, are considered freshmen.

New transfer students starting in the 2014-2015 academic year are required to complete the GenEd curriculum. Students who attempted 15 or more transferrable credits after high school and prior to being admitted to Temple University are considered transfer students.

Attention Current Students

Current students who started at Temple University before Fall 2014 should refer to the Archives (http://bulletin.temple.edu/archives/2014-2015/archives) to find the requirements of their program of study for their Bulletin year.
