Temple University Ambler, a respected innovator in research and education in social, economic, and environmental studies, delivers high-quality undergraduate, graduate, and non-credit courses and programs to meet the needs of the region and provide a rewarding life experience for students of all ages. Ambler Campus faculty members and administrators promote responsible citizenry through curricular and extracurricular activities and applied research that demonstrate and promote concepts central to the creation of strong, sustainable communities: student-centered learning, community engagement, and respect for the environment.

The Ambler Campus, with an undergraduate student population of 2,000, is an ideal campus to pursue higher education, with a convenient location, courses in a variety of disciplines, and a friendly atmosphere. Located in suburban Montgomery County, just 18 miles north of the Main Campus (and minutes from Route 309 and the Pennsylvania Turnpike), Ambler offers the benefits of a small college campus with the excitement and vast resources of a large university. Ambler attracts students who live or work in the greater Philadelphia area, including those from Philadelphia, Bucks, Lehigh, Montgomery, and Northampton counties. The Blue Route (Route 476) also makes Temple University Ambler easily accessible to students from Chester and Delaware counties.

Students enjoy Ambler's beautiful grounds, student organizations and activities, and recreational facilities that include an exercise/weight room, outdoor pool, and tennis, basketball and volleyball courts. The campus is also home to Temple University's men's and women's soccer NCAA Division I teams.

Ambler's facilities include science laboratories, a library, top-quality computer labs, smart classrooms, Computer-Assisted Design (CAD) and Geographic Information Systems (GIS) labs/classrooms, video conferencing room and 300 seat auditorium. Additionally, there is a writing-mathematics-science resource center.

The Ambler Campus offers hundreds of undergraduate courses during the day, evening, and weekends, taught by the university's distinguished faculty. Students may begin many undergraduate program at Ambler. Majors that can be completed entirely at Ambler include:

- Accounting
- Adult and Organizational Development
- Business Management
- Community Development
- Criminal Justice
- Early Childhood Education (PreK to 4)¹
- Horticulture
- Human Resource Management¹
- Interdisciplinary/Liberal Arts
- Landscape Architecture
- Marketing
- Psychology

Majors that can be completed with a majority of their coursework at Ambler Campus include:

- Economics (BA and BBA)
- English
- History

For a complete list of undergraduate majors, minors, and certification programs (for degree and non-degree students) that can be completed at the Ambler Campus, go to: http://ambler.temple.edu/academics/degree-programs/undergraduate Undergraduate courses also include offerings from Temple's General Education curriculum (GenEd) and basic science courses in Biology, Chemistry, Kinesiology, and Earth and Environmental Science. These enable pre-Health Information Management students to complete the majority of the required first two years of prerequisite coursework. Students pursuing Pre-Professional Health Studies may take initial courses at Ambler required for admission to a professional school. Pre-Law students may remain at Ambler for four years, pursuing degrees in Business, Community Development, or the Social Sciences.

The campus is home to Temple's School of Environmental Design, which houses the Department of Landscape Architecture and Horticulture (A.S. and B.S. in Horticulture programs; B.S. and M.L.Arch. in Landscape Architecture programs; plus undergraduate minors and certificates), the Department of Community and Regional Planning (B.S. in Community Development and M.S. in Community and Regional Planning programs; undergraduate minors and certificates; plus graduate certificates), and the Center for Sustainable Communities at Temple University Ambler. (See the School of Environmental Design (http://bulletin.temple.edu/archives/2014-2015/undergraduate/environmental-design) section of this Bulletin for more details.)

The landscaped grounds, also known as the Ambler Arboretum of Temple University, feature formal gardens, a sustainable wetland garden, a green roof garden, an herb garden, a winter garden, wooded areas, a native plant propagation center, and much more.

For a change of pace and scenery, Ambler students can also take courses at Main Campus, Temple University Center City, or the Health Sciences Center.

After graduating, Temple students can continue their graduate work at the Ambler Campus or at Temple University Fort Washington Graduate and Professional Center (http://bulletin.temple.edu/archives/2014-2015/undergraduate/campuses/fort-washington). For more information about Ambler programs, please call 267-468-8000 or visit the Temple University Ambler Campus (http://ambler.temple.edu) website.

Academic Awards, Standards and Honor Societies at Ambler

For additional details and application procedures, go to http://ambler.temple.edu/admissions/costs-aid-and-scholarships/scholarships-ambler-campus

- Elizabeth Clarke Award for Conservation Education: presented to a graduating senior intending to study, teach, or work in the discipline of conservation education; based on the student’s positive attitude and financial need.

- Criminal Justice Scholar’s Award: given to an Ambler graduating senior in Criminal Justice who exhibits a passion for learning and outstanding academic achievement.

- Gold Key Awards for Academic Excellence: given to Ambler students in the sophomore, junior, and senior classes who have taken the greatest number of credits at the Ambler Campus and have achieved the highest grade point average.

- James W. Hilty Adult Student Award: established in 2008 by campus administration, an award to a current degree-seeking graduate or undergraduate student 25 years of age or older (taking more than half of his/her classes at Ambler/Fort Washington) who has demonstrated academic excellence. Applicants must provide a two-paragraph personal statement outlining financial need, personal background, educational path from high school through college, and educational goals.

- Norman J. Kaner Memorial Award: established by the Temple University History Department and supported by family, faculty, and former students in honor of Norman J. Kaner, a member of the History Department from 1968 to 1993. This award is given to an Ambler graduating senior in history with the highest grade point average who best exemplifies the values of critical thought, social curiosity, and intellectual vigor that characterized Professor Kaner’s teaching and scholarship.

- Patricia A. Woods Memorial Fund Award: given to an undergraduate in the pre-health professions, who expresses the desire for advanced undergraduate study in allied health or post-graduate study in the health professions, with a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or higher and a demonstrated commitment to the health professions through experience or service. The name of the recipient is added to the plaque hanging in West Hall.

Dean’s List: Letters are received by students from the dean of the school or college in which they are enrolled in accordance with the academic criteria for scholastic distinction established by their college or school. See Dean’s List (http://bulletin.temple.edu/archives/2014-2015/undergraduate/academic-policies/deans-list).

Academic Standards: Students may receive an academic warning, be placed on probation, or be dismissed from the university based on university standards. See Academic Standing (http://bulletin.temple.edu/archives/2014-2015/undergraduate/academic-policies/academic-standing).

Honor Society: Alpha Sigma Lambda, Nu Omicron Xi Chapter, is an honor society for adult students who have completed at least 24 semester hours at Temple and achieved an excellent grade point average. The Temple University Ambler students who are invited to join this society are inducted at a ceremony held each spring.

Support Services

Ambler Campus is a full-service campus with an array of offices and services to assist students in achieving educational success. The services described below are tailored to the needs of Ambler Campus students. For further information about support services provided at Ambler, please visit the Ambler Campus (http://ambler.temple.edu) web site and/or the corresponding sections in this Bulletin describing these services.
Academic Support Services

Academic Advising

Dedicated professional and faculty advisors at the Ambler Campus help students choose a program of study that is suited to their educational and career goals. While the students are ultimately responsible for knowing their academic status and requirements for their degree programs, advisors assist with information about program requirements and university policies and procedures. For transfer students, advisors can answer questions about transfer credit evaluations and determine whether these credits meet Temple program requirements.

Veteran Affairs
West Hall Lower Level 10
267-468-8102 or 215-204-6130
tuverts@temple.edu
www.temple.edu/veterans

Making the transition from military to college life can be challenging. To assist with this transition, Temple University Veteran Affairs works with the various university departments to plan and implement educational and social programs to help veteran students succeed at Temple University. The Ambler Campus has a Veteran Suite in Bright Hall for students to have a place to meet and study. For questions regarding the certification process and veterans benefits, contact the Temple University Certifying Officer in the Office of the University Registrar at 215-204-7378.

Veterans Certification Process
Veterans may enroll as full-time or part-time students; however, benefits are based on enrollment status. In order to begin the process to use your benefits, it is imperative that you complete the steps that follow before the beginning of the first semester that you are enrolled at the university so that you can receive your benefits in a timely and accurate manner:

- Submit a copy of your certificate of eligibility
- Write your TUID on the front of the certificate
- If you are receiving Chapter 35 DEA benefits, you must also write the social security number of the parent who transferred benefit
- Scan/e-mail your certificate to loriann@temple.edu, fax to 215-204-6626 or hand-deliver a copy to the Office of the University Registrar, 1801 N. Broad Street, Conwell Hall, Room 200.

*NOTE - If you do not submit your certificate of eligibility in advance of the semester beginning it can negatively affect the timely and accurate processing of your program benefit payments.

If you do not have a Certificate of Eligibility, you can obtain a copy by contacting the VA at http://www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/, click on “Submit a Question” or call 1-888-GI-Bill1.

Once your certificate of eligibility has been processed you will receive a veteran declaration tab on your TUportal. If you would like to use your GI Bill benefits for a term, you must be registered for classes. Go to the Veteran Benefit Declaration page by clicking on the Veterans Declaration link in the Registrar Channel on TUportal.

- On the Veteran Benefit Declaration page, select the term, select “yes” under process benefits, provide your credit hours and click save declaration.
- This process notifies the certifying official that you are ready to have your benefits processed for that term.
- You must submit a declaration to use your benefits!

If you do not want to use your GI Bill benefits for the term, go to the Veteran Benefit Declaration page, select the term, select “no” under process benefits and click save declaration.

The Veterans Coordinator in the Office of the University Registrar is available to answer questions concerning VA benefits at 215-204-7358 or vastudentbenefits@temple.edu.

Special Facilities and Programs

Ambler Arboretum of Temple University
Anne Brennan, Horticulture and Ambler Arboretum Supervisor
267-468-8400
http://ambler.temple.edu/arboretum

The Temple University Ambler Campus has a long history and rich tradition of horticulture and landscape design. Established as the Pennsylvania School of Horticulture for Women in 1911, the 187-acre campus represents a unique mix of natural and designed landscapes. The gardens and campus serve as excellent outdoor teaching laboratories for numerous classes and as a source of inspiration for students, faculty, and visitors.

The Ambler Campus was officially designated an arboretum in March 2000. This historic, public garden, now known as the Ambler Arboretum of Temple University, continues to develop as a living laboratory. As the home of Temple University’s Department of Landscape Architecture and Horticulture, the Ambler Campus has a myriad of learning gardens, including a ground cover garden, native plant garden, formal gardens, green roof garden, rock wall, woodland garden, sustainable wetland garden, trial garden, the Viola Anders Herb Garden, the Philip A. and Barbara F. Albright Winter Garden, the Ernesta Ballard Healing Garden with labyrinth, the Colibraro Conifer Garden, and large perennial borders. The arboretum’s three areas of focus are sustainability, the health benefits of gardens, and the history of women in horticulture, agriculture, and design.

Athletic Facilities
http://ambler.temple.edu/athletics-and-wellness/athletics

Temple University Ambler is the full-time home for Temple's men's and women's soccer teams. The NCAA Division I teams practice and play all home games on fields located on the tract bound by Meetinghouse Road, Butler Pike, and Woods Drive. All games and practices take place during the day. Admission is free to all home games. The Intercollegiate Athletics Field House, located near the fields, has "green roof" structures, developed by Temple University with the help of a $50,000 grant from PECO Energy. A green roof is a living biological community of plants that provides an environmentally-sound alternative to a traditional roof system. The green roof garden allows for educational and research opportunities for students and faculty.

Auditorium

The 300-seat Learning Center Auditorium, with smart technology and performance space, provides opportunities to offer cultural, educational, and entertaining events for our students and the surrounding community. In this venue, Ambler Campus, once home to the Temple University Music Festival and Institute, again can host music and dance performances as well as lectures.

Center for Sustainable Communities (CSC) at Temple University Ambler
Jeffrey Featherstone, Ph.D., Director
Susan E. Spinella Sacks, M.S., Assistant Director
Md. Mahbubur Meenar, Ph.D., Assistant Director, Geographic Information Systems Operations and Research
West Hall, Second Floor
http://www.temple.edu/ambler/csc/

The Center for Sustainable Communities develops and promotes new approaches for protecting and preserving quality of life through sustainable development, balancing the relationship between environmental integrity, economic prosperity, and social equity. It was designed to build on Temple University Ambler's strengths in horticulture, landscape architecture, and planning and to draw upon the expertise of all Temple University faculty. A working resource for government agencies, community organizations, and developers, the center provides objective information and services to improve decision-making relative to land use and water resources planning, in addition to conducting interdisciplinary research and offering educational and community outreach programs.

Criminal Justice Training Programs (CJTP)
West Hall 122
267-468-8600
http://ambler.temple.edu/campus-life/campus-safety

Criminal Justice Training Programs, a division of the Department of Criminal Justice, is an interdisciplinary unit that has conducted training for a variety of criminal justice agencies and occupations since 1968. Each year, more than 3,000 criminal justice professionals attend programs offered by CJTP, including police officers, deputy sheriffs, state constables, legislative security officers, school security officers, and magisterial district court staff. Other activities include criminal justice continuing education programs for agencies allied to the criminal justice system, including public safety, citizen, and community groups. CJTP also is responsible for the development of training curricula for various occupations including distance-learning. Most recently, CJTP has been involved in the development of "ProRanger Philadelphia," an academic and technical skills training and paid internship program that is cooperatively administered by the National Park Service and Temple University. The program was established to recruit, train, and employ law enforcement park rangers for the National Park Service. Upon graduation from Temple University and successfully completing the ProRanger program, which includes a law enforcement training component, participants are placed in a permanent career tenure law enforcement park ranger position with the National Park Service. Current students in any major who are interested in federal law enforcement are encouraged to find out about the ProRanger program, and students completing their degree programs are eligible to attend the Police Academy in preparation for a career in law enforcement.

EarthFest
Susan E. Spinella Sacks, Coordinator; Assistant Director, Center for Sustainable Communities
James Duffy, Co-Coordinator; Public Relations and Web site Coordinator
Rachel Berger, Co-Coordinator; Marketing and Special Events Coordinator 267-468-8108
duffyj@temple.edu
http://ambler.temple.edu/about/earthfest

Hosted by the Center for Sustainable Communities in the School of Environmental Design, EarthFest is an outdoor educational celebration of Earth Day held each year at Temple University Ambler. The mission of EarthFest is to promote environmental awareness using sustainable concepts, methods, and practices to protect and preserve our environment. Organizations, businesses, colleges, high schools, middle schools, elementary schools, and individuals demonstrate sustainable concepts and technologies. Thousands of students from all over the region come together and spend time learning about the world in which we live and the interconnected systems on which the lives of people and animals depend. This event is central to Ambler’s values of student-centered learning, respect for the environment, and community engagement.

Greenhouse
Anne Brennan, Horticulture and Ambler Arboretum Supervisor
267-468-8191
http://ambler.temple.edu/arboretum/gardens

The Greenhouse at Temple University Ambler provides students with a first-class facility to study plant and soil science. The energy-efficient greenhouse includes computerized climate controls and thermal blankets to protect the plants in the winter and shade them in the summer. Modern fertilizer injection systems water and fertilize plants simultaneously. In addition to being used for coursework, the greenhouse provides faculty and students with a facility to conduct horticulture research that is at the forefront of the industry.

Infant Study Lab
Kathy Hirsh-Pasek, Ph.D., Co-Director
Nora Newcombe, Ph.D., Co-Director
Haines House
267-468-8610
infntlab@temple.edu
http://www.temple.edu/infantlab/

The Temple University Ambler Infant Lab invites parents and their children to shape the future by participating in research at the frontiers of science. The lab is directed by nationally-recognized child development authorities and professors Dr. Kathy Hirsh-Pasek and Dr. Nora Newcombe. Faculty and staff provide fun-filled activities for infants and toddlers who become part of cutting-edge scientific discoveries. Parents learn more about their children’s first words and ability to create mental maps. At the lab, infants and toddlers teach scientists new ways to optimize education and advance learning.

School of Environmental Design
www.cia.temple.edu/sed

The Ambler Campus is the home of the School of Environmental Design which includes the Department of Community and Regional Planning, the Department of Landscape Architecture and Horticulture, and the Center for Sustainable Communities. Ambler Campus has been connected to sustainable concepts and environmental stewardship for over a century. The School of Environmental Design upholds the environmental traditions established by the Pennsylvania School of Horticulture for Women founded in 1911 and carried forward by its founding Department of Landscape Architecture and Horticulture. See the School of Environmental Design section of this Bulletin.

Student Life
Office of Student Life
Bright Hall 101
267-468-8425
http://ambler.temple.edu/campus-life/clubs-and-organizations

The Office of Student Life coordinates the New Student Orientation program, offering orientation sessions for incoming freshmen and an online orientation for new transfer students. As part of this orientation, academic advisors assist students with academic planning and registration.

For current students, this office supports and complements the university’s academic mission by promoting social, cultural, educational, and developmental programs for the students at Ambler. The office provides opportunities through campus-wide programming and student organizations for students to develop special skills and interests, to interact regularly with other students, to plan and manage events, to participate in leadership training and self-governance, and to become involved in community-service projects.

Student Organizations

Bright Hall 101
267-468-8425
http://ambler.temple.edu/campus-life/clubs-and-organizations

There are about 30 student organizations on campus. Students are encouraged to join a professional or social organization to gain valuable leadership experience, meet and network with other students, organize fundraisers, and participate in service learning opportunities and events. For a full list of organizations, select the website above.

For information about student organizations in the Fox School of Business and Management, refer to that section of the Bulletin.

Student Government Association

Bright Hall, 1st Floor
267-468-8429
http://ambler.temple.edu/campus-life/clubs-and-organizations

The Ambler Student Government Association (A.S.G.A.) enables Ambler students to seek solutions to their concerns pertaining to all aspects of the campus by serving as a liaison between the student body and university administration.

Student Leadership Awards

Awards to outstanding students and student groups are presented annually at the end of the Spring semester. The Office of Student Life has more information on leadership awards (http://ambler.temple.edu/admissions/costs-aid-and-scholarships/scholarships-ambler-campus/student-leadership-awards).
