Satisfactory Academic Progress

Satisfactory academic progress is determined by a number of factors, including a student's semester grade point average, cumulative grade point average, and the number of semester hours attempted and completed. A student's progress is reviewed at the end of each semester by the student's Temple school or college and may affect the student's ability to continue in a program or major and eligibility for financial aid. Students should be advised that course withdrawals and incompletes will affect their progress and thus their academic standing. See Academic Standing (http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/academic-policies/academic-standing) and Grade Point Average (http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/academic-policies/gpa).
