

Academic Programs

For a complete list of academic programs offered at Temple University, refer to the Academic Programs Chart (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/academic-programs>).

Specific information on undergraduate academic programs is located within the individual schools, colleges and divisions (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/schools-colleges>). Additional information is located in the following sections:

- University General Education Curriculum (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/general-education>)
- Writing Intensive Course Requirements (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/academic-programs/writing-intensive-courses>)
- Intercollegial Programs (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/intercollegial-programs>)
- Temple University Japan Campus (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/japan-campus>).

Attention New Freshmen and Transfer Students

All new undergraduate students are required to complete the university's General Education (GenEd (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/general-education>)) curriculum.

New freshmen are required to complete the GenEd (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/general-education>) curriculum. Advanced Placement (AP) (<http://www.temple.edu/vpus/transfer/equivalencies.htm#AP>), International Baccalaureate (IB) (<http://www.temple.edu/vpus/transfer/equivalencies.htm#IB>), and Dual Enrollment credits may fulfill GenEd areas.

New transfer students are required to complete some version of the GenEd (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/general-education>) curriculum. (See the Transfer Students (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/undergraduate/about-temple-university/general-admissions-information/transfer-students/#gened>) section of this Bulletin.) Students who attempted 15 or more transferrable credits after high school and prior to being admitted to Temple University are considered transfer students.

Attention Current Students

Current students who started at Temple University before Fall 2017 should refer to the Archives (<http://bulletin.temple.edu/archives>) to find the requirements of their program of study for their Bulletin year.
