

Entertainment Industry Studies Certificate

Overview

The Certificate in Entertainment Industry Studies, offered by the Department of Film and Media Arts, offers students both an overview of and an internship in the Los Angeles Entertainment Industries, as well as two introductory film courses in Philadelphia. Students will gain first-hand entertainment industry experience in addition to two hands-on filmmaking or film studies courses in the Film and Media Arts program. The certificate requires four courses, two of which must be taken in the Los Angeles Study Away Program.

FMA students are not eligible for this certificate.

Campus Location: Main

Program Code: CA-EIS-CERT

Contact Information

TFMA Academic Advising
Mitten Hall, Suite 200 West
cpcaadvising@temple.edu

Learn more about the undergraduate certificate in Entertainment Industry Studies.

Requirements

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Students take the following two courses in the Film and Media Arts Summer Los Angeles Study Away program (they must apply to the program):
FMA 3085	Internship	4
FMA 3770	Topics in Film Study (Entertainment Industry Perspectives)	4
Students take two of the following courses on Main Campus:
FMA 1141	Film, Video and Interactive Foundations I	6-8
FMA 1142	Film, Video and Interactive Foundations II ¹
FMA 1171	Media & Culture
FMA 1172	Introduction to Film and Video Analysis
Total Credit Hours		14-16

1

Students must earn a 'C' in FMA 1141 in order to enroll in FMA 1142.

Students may take the two out of the four courses on Main Campus at anytime.

Students may only attend the Film and Media Arts Summer Los Angeles Study Away program after they have completed 60 credits. Information about the Film and Media Arts Summer Los Angeles Study Away program is available at <https://tfma.temple.edu/study-away/la>.