Temple University is committed to the full inclusion of students with a disability in all programs and services. The goal is to build a learning community wherein people with diverse abilities are valued and included in all facets of life at the University.

Disability Resources and Services (DRS), a free and confidential service, facilitates access and accommodations on an individualized basis and provides opportunities for students with a disability to grow and develop. Students who connect with DRS include those with physical, visual, hearing, and speech disabilities; health, mental health, and autism spectrum conditions; attention deficits; brain injuries; and learning disabilities. Many student veterans, student athletes, honors students, and international students who have a disability connect with DRS.

Dedicated, knowledgeable DRS staff meet with graduate students to determine eligibility for accommodations and discuss strategies for educational success. DRS develops programs and workshops to support student retention and provides training and awareness about access and inclusion to the entire University community.

All graduate students in need of such services should contact DRS on Main Campus to register, although services are available at all Temple University campuses. Each campus has an identified DRS liaison to aid the graduate student in accessing these services:

- Academic accommodations, including:
  - Alternate format materials
  - Note-taking support
  - Sign language interpreters and CART services
  - Testing accommodations
• Accessible housing
• Assistive technology
• Career development
• Intake assessment
• Mentoring and leadership development opportunities
• Scholarships

Military and Veteran Services Center

https://veterans.temple.edu/
601 Conwell Hall
1801 N. Broad Street
Philadelphia, PA 19122
mvsc@temple.edu
215-204-6130

The Military and Veteran Services Center (MVSC) serves as a centralized resource for prospective and currently enrolled military-affiliated students seeking guidance and assistance regarding admissions to Temple, GI Bill® benefits, Temple’s certification process, access to support services, and event coordination. Additionally, the shared physical space serves as a dedicated space for student-veterans.

The primary mission of the MVSC is to provide, facilitate, or coordinate programs, events, and services for military-affiliated students. Military-affiliated students are defined as student veterans, military service members, and their family members (spouse and/or child).

See Registration for additional information.

Note: GI Bill® is a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). More information about education benefits offered by VA is available at the official U.S. government web site at https://www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/.

Student Health and Wellness

Student Health Fee

As part of the University Services Fee, all students are charged each term during the academic year to help subsidize the basic diagnostic and treatment services provided by healthcare providers at three campuses. Some services are not covered by the Student Health Fee, including, for example, dispensed medications, orthopedic supplies, and immunizations. Extensive laboratory testing is available at Main Campus, but only office laboratory tests are performed at the Ambler and Health Sciences Center campuses.

Tuttleman Counseling Services (TCS) is a comprehensive provider of mental health services to Temple's student population. Services are free and confidential for all registered students. Our mission is to support and enhance the psychological functioning of our students and thereby support the academic mission of the University. It is recognized that our students are dealing with a variety of major life issues as they pursue their education, including affiliation, career choices, identity formation, relationships, and separation and individuation. In addition, some students come to us with prior mental health histories and medication needs.

TCS is first and foremost a provider of individual and group counseling services, although couple and family counseling are available at the student's request. This foundation provides students with support and guidance for a wide variety of problems, from adjustment issues and transitory difficulties to more serious psychological problems and even severe mental illness. Whenever possible, we seek to help students avoid or reduce self-harm that may stem from making poor choices. TCS provides services in the following areas:

- Individual Therapy: https://counseling.temple.edu/individual
- Group Therapy: https://counseling.temple.edu/group-counseling
- Psychiatric Services: https://counseling.temple.edu/psychiatric-services
- Resiliency Resource Center: https://counseling.temple.edu/resiliency-resource-center
- Referrals: https://counseling.temple.edu/referral-services

TCS also has specialized counselors who provide comprehensive services to students concerned with alcohol/substance use and/or other addictive behaviors; engage in crisis intervention, case management, counseling, and advocacy work for Temple students who have experienced sexual assault, partner violence, childhood sexual abuse, sexual harassment, and/or stalking; and offer specialized experience and interest in treating disordered eating and body image concern.

Wellness Resource Center

https://wellness.temple.edu/
201 Howard Gittis Student Center
1755 N. 13th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19122
TUWellness@temple.edu
215-204-8436

Open Monday–Friday, 8:30 a.m.–5:00 p.m.

The Wellness Resource Center is the on-campus health education and prevention office. Staffed by master's- and doctoral-level health professionals and supported by peer health educators, the Wellness Resource Center is committed to providing comprehensive wellness resources and services that empower Temple University students to make informed, healthier choices and achieve academic success. Center staff also work with faculty, staff, and departments in training and consultation capacities to support them in addressing student health needs and concerns. The Wellness Resource Center's multifaceted model helps to create a collective consciousness of wellness on Temple's campus with the hope of producing students who are not only well-educated but also healthy. Training, consultation, and programs on a variety of topics are offered, including alcohol and sex; alcohol and substance abuse; body image and nutrition; diversity; healthy relationships; HIV; LGBTQIA+; mental health; safer sex; self-esteem; sexual assault, rape, and dating violence; sexuality: orientation, gender, and identity; sexually transmitted infections; and stress/time management.

The Wellness Resource Center provides a safe space for students to receive free, anonymous, or confidential health information in a supportive environment. Students are engaged in a variety of ways, including campus-wide wellness events, condom sales, course instruction, health programming, health-related referrals, HIV testing, individual health education sessions, peer education, and promotion of a healthier campus environment.

The Wellness Resource Center also offers students opportunities to get involved as peer educators and interns. These students receive comprehensive wellness training, preparing them to support campus-wide health and wellness initiatives. Students can receive academic credit for their work with the Wellness Resource Center. A limited number of paid positions are available to students who successfully complete SBS 2304 HEART Peer Educator Training (3 s.h.).

Student Success Center

https://studentsuccess.temple.edu/
230 Charles Library
1900 N. 13th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19122
ssc@temple.edu
The Student Success Center (SSC) offers a suite of services that are designed to meet the particular needs of graduate students. These services include both writing and research retreats, as well as writing and research groups, which provide support for students working on dissertations and theses. Also offered is the Ph.D. Colloquium, which is a semester-long, biweekly speaker series for students who want support in writing the dissertation, applying for grants and fellowships, and preparing for the academic and non-academic job markets.

Graduate students may also utilize the following services and programs:

Academic Coaching is an appointment-based service that helps students develop effective learning habits and strategies, including skills related to studying, test taking, time management, and more. Academic coaches meet one-on-one with students to help them hone specific skills related to the students’ individual academic goals.

Conversation Partners provides assistance that aids students in achieving fluency in more than one language. This program gives students who are learning English an opportunity to meet one-on-one with a proficient speaker who can help them practice listening, speaking, and reading comprehension, and who serves as a mentor related to issues of intercultural communication. This service is available by appointment or on a walk-in basis.

The Writing Center offers tutoring services that help graduate students develop as writers. Writing tutors work collaboratively with students on many aspects of their writing, including organization, argument, editing sentences for clarity and grammar, incorporating outside sources, and citation. Tutoring is offered in person, by appointment, on a walk-in basis, and online.

The SSC maintains an interactive website. Students can use the website to access online tutoring, to make appointments for services, and to access academic support resources, including videos and downloadable handouts.
