

Applied Research and Evaluation PSM

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Learn more about the Professional Science Master's in Applied Research and Evaluation.

About the Program

Growing awareness of the importance of data-informed planning and decision-making, increased availability and ease of collection of data, and rising emphasis on accountability in a wide array of educational and organizational settings have served to increase demand for personnel with applied research knowledge, skills and abilities across educational, nonprofit, for-profit and governmental organizations. The Professional Science Master's degree in Applied Research and Evaluation offers a graduate curriculum that enables students to study advanced conceptual and theoretical principles and methodological and statistical procedures while simultaneously developing expertise and experience with applied research and program evaluation studies in educational and organizational settings.

Time Limit for Degree Completion: 5 years

Campus Location: Main

Full-Time/Part-Time Status: Full-time students complete the degree program by taking classes during the day and in the evening. Part-time students take classes that start after 4:00 p.m.

Areas of Specialization: The program offers two areas of concentration:

- Applied Educational Psychology focuses on research and evaluation skills with an emphasis on formal and informal educational programs.
- Organizational Research and Development focuses on research and evaluation skills with an emphasis on organizational processes.

Both concentrations prepare professionals for work in formal educational settings, nonprofit and for-profit organizations, and governmental institutions.

Job Prospects: The PSM degree in Applied Research and Evaluation is designed to prepare professionals for applied positions focusing on applied research and program evaluation of educational and organizational processes. Settings for such work may include research centers, PreK-12 educational institution evaluation units, research and planning units within institutions of higher learning, as well as applied research and development units within the public and private sectors, and nonprofit and for-profit entities.

Non-Matriculated Student Policy: Students may take up to, but not more than, 9 credits of graduate study in the program before being admitted to the program. The credits transfer into the program, if the student is admitted. Students completing non-matriculated courses before being admitted to the program are NOT guaranteed admission.

Financing Opportunities: Financial support opportunities may include scholarships, tuition remission, and other financial aid such as grants, loans and federal work study.

Admission Requirements and Deadlines

Application Deadline:

Fall: March 1

Spring: November 1

Applicants should submit all required admissions documents by the application deadline to receive priority consideration for admission and financial support.

APPLY ONLINE to this graduate program.

Letters of Reference:

Number Required: 2

From Whom: Letters of recommendation should be obtained to provide insight regarding the applicant's academic competence. References from college/university faculty are recommended.

Bachelor's Degree in Discipline/Related Discipline: A bachelor's degree is required. A minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale is expected.

Transcripts: Official undergraduate and graduate transcripts from all accredited institutions attended and/or from which credit was earned must be submitted.

International applicants must also submit an official document, including a course-by-course evaluation conducted by a NACES-accredited organization, that validates completion and conferral of a degree, diploma and/or certificate. While not required, international applicants are encouraged to submit transcript(s) to World Education Services (WES) for evaluation.

Statement of Goals: In 500 to 1,000 words, outline your interest in seeking a master's degree with a specific focus on the career to which you aspire, your interests, and your academic and job-related experiences that are relevant to the program.

Standardized Test Scores: Applicants who earned their baccalaureate degree from an institution where the language of instruction was other than English, with the exception of those who subsequently earned a master's degree at a U.S. institution, must report scores for a standardized test of English that meet these minimums:

- TOEFL iBT: 79
- IELTS Academic: 6.5
- PTE Academic: 53
