

Educational Leadership, M.Ed.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

About the Program

The cohort-based Master of Education in Educational Leadership, offered in collaboration with Church Teachers' College, Mandeville, Jamaica, prepares students to become transformative leaders in a variety of educational settings and roles, including leadership positions in the direction and management of K-12 schools and higher education. Graduates are prepared for the roles of principal, business administrator, and other administrative positions in schools, school districts, colleges, and universities. The Educational Leadership M.Ed. program is designed to help students gain both new ways to think about education in Jamaica and to develop a robust global perspective.
