COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Learn more about the graduate certificate in Instructional Learning Technology.

About the Certificate

Institutions across the nation require educators who understand and can effectively utilize technology in learning environments. The Instructional Learning Technology certificate program provides students with the expertise and competencies to implement learning strategies through the use of technology. The certificate program is designed for working professionals with diverse professional goals, including:

- Educators in public, charter, independent, parochial and other religiously affiliated institutions.
- Corporate and government trainers and adult educators.
- Faculty and instructional leaders in higher education.

By completing additional coursework to meet state certification requirements, students become eligible to apply for the Instructional Technology Specialist (K-12) certification.

Time Limit for Certificate Completion: 2 years

Campus Location: Online

Full-Time/Part-Time Status: The graduate certificate can be completed on a part-time basis.

Admission Requirements and Deadlines

Application Deadline:

Applications are accepted for the Fall, Spring and Summer terms and are reviewed on a rolling basis.
