Learn more about the graduate certificate in Diversity, Equity and Inclusive Leadership in Organizations.

About the Certificate

We recognize this truth: Our organizations are increasingly diverse with employees of various ethnicities, generations, genders and sexual orientations, religious beliefs, backgrounds and histories, partnerships, and values cooperating in support of personal and organizational goals. Our organizational leaders must embrace this world and facilitate a future that respectfully acknowledges those differences and builds a culture of equity. One of the keys to this future is inclusive leadership beliefs and practices. Our graduate certificate in Diversity, Equity and Inclusive Leadership in Organizations is designed to increase the skills of managers and team members in utilizing these key practices.

Coursework allows students to develop their own perspectives on diversity and equity and begin to model inclusive leadership practices. This certificate also allows for a choice of an elective course. Students explore the larger context of leadership, the variety of individual differences that contribute to a diverse environment, the importance of understanding one's colleagues and tailoring one's communication to their needs, and the laws and public policy issues related to diversity and equality.

All courses are delivered online and include virtual classroom meetings with a Fox School faculty member and student-classmates. Rigorous hands-on courses are taught by faculty who are leaders in their fields and businesspeople who have managerial and leadership experience. Participants also have the option to transfer credits earned into a Fox graduate degree program, such as the Human Resource Management MS.

The Diversity, Equity and Inclusive Leadership in Organizations certificate program is appropriate for:

- individual contributors who seek a leadership role, and
- general managers who would like to develop inclusive leadership practices.

Full-Time/Part-Time Status: The graduate certificate can be completed on a part-time basis. NOTE: International students may not be eligible to apply for a student visa based on admission to the certificate program. Please contact the Fox School's admissions advisor for more information.
