FOX SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT

Learn more about the Master in Management.

About the Program

Developed for recent college graduates with business and non-business degrees, the Master in Management (MiM) delivers a comprehensive introduction to the world of business and equips students to become managers, leaders, and problem solvers at globally focused firms. This program, taught by industry experts, is designed for students looking to supplement their undergraduate degree with the knowledge that today's employers demand in an effort to increase their career marketability.

Time Limit for Degree Completion: The MiM program is a full-time program that is designed to be completed in one year, although Graduate School guidelines allow for up to six years for completion of the master's degree.

Campus Location: Main

Full-Time/Part-Time Status: The program is completed on a full-time basis with a cohort. Classes are held in the evening to accommodate internships and other obligations.

Affiliation(s): Research interests of Fox faculty are supported by numerous centers and institutes throughout the Fox School and Temple University.

Accreditation: The MiM program is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International).

Job Prospects: The Fox Center for Student Professional Development (CSPD) provides students with career coaching and professional development resources that support the job search. In addition, throughout the program, MiM students are introduced to alumni, executives, and partner firms who desire to work with, support, and hire our graduates.

Non-Matriculated Student Policy: The MiM program is a cohort program, and courses may not be taken on a non-matriculated basis.

Financing Opportunities: Citizens and permanent residents of the United States are considered domestic students and are typically eligible for federal student loans and alternative loans through private lenders. The Fox School grants 5% tuition scholarships to alumni who are admitted to the program. Scholarship funds are limited and available based on merit.
