Management MiM

FOX SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT

Learn more about the Master in Management.

About the Program

Developed for recent college graduates with business and non-business degrees, the Master in Management (MiM) delivers a comprehensive introduction to the world of business and equips students to become managers, leaders and problem solvers at globally focused firms. This program, taught by industry experts, is designed for students looking to supplement their undergraduate degree with the knowledge that today’s employers demand in an effort to increase their career marketability.

The MiM program is only offered at Temple University’s Japan campus.

Time Limit for Degree Completion: The MiM program is designed to be completed on a full-time basis with a cohort in one year, although Graduate School guidelines allow for up to six years for completion of the master's degree.

Campus Location: Temple University Japan only

Full-Time/Part-Time Status: The program is designed to be completed on a full-time basis with a cohort. Classes are held in the evening to accommodate internships and other obligations.

Accreditation: The MiM program is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International).

Non-Matriculated Student Policy: The MiM program is a cohort program, and courses may not be taken on a non-matriculated basis.

Financing Opportunities: United States Federal Student Aid is available only to U.S. citizens or permanent residents of the United States. The Fox School grants 5% tuition scholarships to alumni who are admitted to the program. Scholarship funds are limited. For more information, visit https://www.tuj.ac.jp/mim/tuition.
