

International Business Law LLM

BEASLEY SCHOOL OF LAW

About the Program

This degree program is taught entirely online to accommodate the needs of working professionals seeking to balance work, study, and personal life. In addition, the fully online curriculum enables students to save on the costs associated with study abroad and living expenses in the United States, while still receiving a top-tier legal education.

The program's comprehensive international business-focused curriculum provides rigorous academic training in areas such as international trade law, cross-border transactions, investment arbitration, and regulatory compliance.

Courses are taught in English by experienced Temple Law professors and by adjunct professors who are expert practitioners in their fields. The program is acquiesced by the American Bar Association (ABA).

Graduates of the program will emerge with a sophisticated understanding of the legal frameworks governing global commerce and be able to manage the complex challenges of today's business landscape with confidence and expertise.

Whether your interests are in private practice, corporate counsel, governmental agencies, international organizations, or legal education, our program equips you with the tools to thrive in a dynamic and ever-evolving field.

Join us and embark on a transformative journey toward becoming a leader in international business law.
