Pre-Med Health Scholar Program

The Pre-Med Health Scholar Program is offered to highly talented high school seniors interested in pursuing a career as a physician. It is designed to recruit exceptional students to Temple University by offering a Linkage Agreement with the Lewis Katz School of Medicine at Temple University. Applications are accepted from high school seniors and interviews are conducted in February of their senior year of high school. Health Scholar Program Applications for interested high school seniors are available through the Pre-Professional Health Advising web site. Completed applications are due by December of each student's senior year in high school. Students entering Temple University as Pre-Med Health Scholars may consider an Accelerated BA/MD (3+4) Degree option during their first semester of undergraduate studies.

Accelerated Programs for Dentistry, Pharmacy, Physical Therapy, and Podiatry

Accelerated Programs allow Pre: Dentistry, Pharmacy, and Podiatry (3+4 Tracks) as well as Physical Therapy (3+3 Track) students the option of earning both their Bachelor of Arts and Graduate degrees in a shorter period of time. Bachelor's degrees are conferred after successfully completing three years of undergraduate studies and passing all courses in the first year of professional school. The Accelerated BA/DMD, BA/PharmD, BA/DPM, or DPT Programs are designed for high-achieving students who have distinguished themselves with impressive academic records and a demonstrated interest in their respective field.

Applications are accepted from high school seniors and first year, first semester, freshmen. Accelerated program Applications are available on the Pre-Professional Health Advising web site.

The Temple Law Scholars program provides an opportunity for outstanding students to gain provisional admission to Temple University's Beasley School of Law at the same time they are accepted into an undergraduate program of study. Law Scholars are expected to participate in the University Honors Program while undergraduates, after which they enroll in the Beasley School of Law, leading to the degree of Juris Doctor. For more information or an application, please visit the Temple Law Scholars Program.

University Honors Program

The University Honors Program includes students enrolled in every undergraduate school and college. Incoming first-year students are automatically reviewed upon acceptance to Temple University. Current Temple students or transfer students can apply for admission through the Honors web site. Applications for current Temple students and transfer students are reviewed at the end of each semester.
For more information, please visit the Honors Program.
