Piano Concentration

The following information pertains to the Piano concentration. Refer to the Classical Guitar, Harpsichord, Voice and the other instruments pages for their requirements.

The Piano Concentration is administered by the Department of Keyboard Instruction.

The Department of Keyboard Instruction offers a variety of programs of study to meet the individual needs of potential solo artists, chamber musicians, accompanists and teachers, and provides a keyboard concentration for those majoring in music education, music therapy, music history, music theory, composition and jazz studies. Weekly private lessons are reinforced by regular performance classes, and a series of master classes taught by faculty members and guest artists focuses on special topics essential to the keyboard performer.
