

Adult and Organizational Development Minor

Overview

A Minor in Adult and Organizational Development (AOD), offered by the Department of Policy, Organizational and Leadership Studies, can complement a range of existing majors across Temple, including, among others: Human Resource Management, Psychology, Education, Business Management, Communication Management, and Social Work. The AOD minor can open up expanded career opportunities for students through our applied focus on organizational skill development, training and adult learning.

Campus Location: Main

Contact Information

Undergraduate Advising, College of Education and Human Development
 edadvising@temple.edu

Armando Estrada, Program Coordinator
 armando.x.estrada@temple.edu

Requirements

The minor in Adult and Organizational Development consists of 15 credit hours in Adult & Organizational Development coursework.

Students must complete the following courses:

Code	Title	Credit Hours
AOD 1016	Introduction to Adult Learning and Training	3
AOD 1166	Interpersonal Processes through the Life Span	3
AOD 2176	Team Process in Education	3
AOD 2214	Conflict Processes	3
Select one of the following:		3
AOD 2215	Mediation: Principles and Practice
AOD 3316	Negotiation Processes
AOD 3319	Skill Building for Social Entrepreneurship and Community Engagement

Total Credit Hours

15

All courses must be completed with a minimum grade of C-.