

All Minors & Certificates

Many Temple University undergraduates are currently taking selected education courses to prepare themselves better for their careers after graduation. The College of Education and Human Development offers the following minor and certificate programs to facilitate this preparation. Some programs are open to all students in the university; others are restricted to a limited student population. Requirements for a minor or certificate must be completed prior to graduation and minors will be recorded on the student's official university transcript upon graduation.

- Certificate in Applied Behavior Analysis
- Certificate in Diversity and Inclusion
- Certificate in English Language Teaching
- Certificate in Leadership & Military Science
- Minor in Adult & Organizational Development
- Minor in Education
- Minor in Human Development and Community Engagement
