

Secondary Education / World Languages Education BSEd

Overview

The Bachelor of Science in Education in Secondary Education / World Languages Education is offered by the Department of Teaching and Learning.

In the state of Pennsylvania, certification in a world language is a K-12 certificate. World Language certification at Temple University College of Education and Human Development is available in Chinese, French, German, Italian, Latin, and Spanish.

Students must complete all coursework and fieldwork requirements needed to make them eligible for Pennsylvania certification in Secondary Education: World Languages. Passing the required Praxis exam(s) as stipulated by the Pennsylvania Department of Education is required to apply for Pennsylvania certification.

Students wishing to complete a second major in Chinese, French, German, Italian, Latin, or Spanish should meet with a College of Education and Human Development academic advisor to declare the desired second major; students may need to take additional courses as defined by the College of Liberal Arts (CLA).

Study Abroad

Secondary Education / World Languages Education majors are encouraged to study overseas, when possible, in relevant foreign language speaking areas through Temple or external study abroad programs. Temple offers semester and year-long programs at Temple campuses in Rome and Oviedo, Spain, as well as exchange options at the University of Puerto Rico and Universities of Hamburg and Tübingen in Germany. Temple offers various summer language programs in Rome, Germany, Spain and France. The Latin American Studies Semester program is an immersion experience available at Temple's Main Campus to all Spanish majors during spring semesters. Students interested in study abroad should consult with the office of Education Abroad and Overseas Campuses and College of Education and Human Development Academic Advising to explore program options and develop a study abroad academic plan in advance.

Campus Location: Main

Program Code: ED-SEWL-BSED

GPA Requirements

In order to maintain good standing in Secondary Education, students must maintain a 3.0 cumulative grade point average and a 2.0 grade point average in the course work in their content area.

Accreditation

The program is approved as a teacher preparation program by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

Licensure/Certification

Upon successful completion of the program requirements, candidates may apply for a Pennsylvania Instructional I Teaching Certificate. Please note, Pennsylvania requires assessment of candidates in General Knowledge, Professional Knowledge and/or Subject Area Knowledge prior to issuance of a certificate. Please refer to the PDE web site for testing requirements.
