

Bachelor of Science in Education in Special Education (Pre-K-12)

Learn more about the Bachelor of Science in Education in Special Education (Pre-K-12).

Special Education (PreK-12)

Special Education (PreK-12) program in the College of Education and Human Development equips teachers with deep understandings of the sociocultural context of education, high-impact instructional practices, and empirically-supported, preventative approaches to provide equitable education to children with disabilities.

The program features uphold and further both the College's and the University's mission in the following ways:

- Promoting evidence-based practice and effective implementation in the classroom
- Recognizing and ameliorating the impact of socio-cultural factors on the education of children with disabilities
- Advocating inclusive practices both within schools and within society as a whole
- Emphasizing preventative approaches to support improved teaching and learning
