

Legal Studies Minor

- Open only to business and School of Sport, Tourism and Hospitality Management students.
- Designed to expose students to a curriculum in legal studies, particularly students majoring in other disciplines such as accounting, risk management or finance who are considering law school. Students will learn how to read cases and statutes, do legal research and make a legal argument as well as identify the legal issues that will impact their business and personal decisions.
- All students are required to take the prerequisite course LGLS 1101, which is a lower division Fox School foundation.

• Four additional courses are required:

- Three of the four courses required for the minor must be taken at Temple University. Residency excludes LGLS 1101.
- A grade point average of 2.0 in the minor is required as well as a minimum grade of C- in each course unless otherwise specified.
- Courses cannot be used to meet minor requirements if already used to meet the requirements for a major or a different minor or certificate.
- Courses for the minor must be completed prior to graduation; if completed, the minor will be recorded on the final transcript upon graduation.
- To declare or rescind this minor, visit the Fox School of Business and Management (<https://www.fox.temple.edu/advising/minors-certificates>).

Interested students should discuss with their home college advisors how the courses in the minor will fit into their overall degree plan and are strongly encouraged to declare the minor early in their academic career.
