

Bachelor of Arts in Latin American Studies

Learn more about the Bachelor of Arts in Latin American Studies.

The Latin American Studies major offers an interdisciplinary approach to learning about the politics, economics, cultures, and societies of Latin America and the Caribbean. It uses this region as a framework for exploring thematic issues in such disciplines as anthropology, art, history, political science, Spanish and Portuguese, and communication studies. Courses are offered in departments from every school and college, and our affiliated faculty research diverse topics from development economics to immigrant healthcare, from Latin American music to colonial literature. To complete the major, students must take twelve 3-credit courses in Latin American Studies and demonstrate a reading and speaking knowledge of Spanish or Portuguese.
