

Undergraduate

Welcome to the 2024-2025 Temple University Undergraduate Bulletin. Inside, you will find tools to help you map your academic plan and complete your college degree.

There are numerous resources in this Bulletin, including:

- A searchable database of more than 4,000 undergraduate courses;
- Overviews of degree programs and requirements for more than 150 undergraduate majors, as well as for minors, concentrations and certificates;
- Information on study abroad and research opportunities;
- Academic policies and procedures; and,
- A directory of student support services.

We strongly encourage you to take advantage of the opportunities described in this Bulletin. You should make it a point to meet with your advisor regularly, participate in rewarding learning experiences, and commit to graduating on time. And if you're an incoming freshman or transfer student, visit fly.temple.edu to learn about Fly in 4, Temple's innovative plan to fast-track your future and limit your debt.

Our first priority is providing you with a well-rounded education that prepares you to be "real world ready." With the tools available in this Bulletin, you are well on your way to personal and professional success.
