

Postbaccalaureate Certificate in National Park Service Management

The University College, in consultation with the National Park Service, has developed a certificate program in National Park Service Management that will provide extensive opportunities for academic study, training and development, and for internship placement as preparation for a career in National Park Service (NPS) law.

The certificate program is open to postbaccalaureate students who are part of the ProRanger program.

Requirements

This program includes both classroom and experiential components.

Experiential Components (non-credit):

- Two summer internships
- Seasonal Law Enforcement Training Program, completed after graduation from Temple.

Certificate Components (15 credits):

- PRAN 3001 Professional Preparation Seminar for the ProRanger
- PRAN 1577 Introduction to the ProRanger Program (taken during first summer internship)
- HIST 2214 History of the National Park Service
- HIST 2215 Imperiled Promise: An Introduction to Heritage Interpretation in the National Park Service
- CJ 3701 Land Management and Federal Law Enforcement
- AOD 2218 Leadership in Organizations

Academic Plan

Students generally will be selected as sophomores in the fall and will begin coursework in the spring. Courses offered by some departments will be alternated in odd and even years so that students from both active cohorts will take courses together. The following academic plan applies to students who begin the program in an odd year.
